Children of My Heart:

As My Beloved Morya has said so often -- "Oh, for more time, space and opportunity for the service We wish to render to the mankind of Earth!"

This week it is My pleasure to give you part of the report on this month's Transmission Flame Ceremonies as recorded by that same Beloved Son, Who, I may safely say never fails to take advantage of the time, place and opportunity to serve mankind when the time and circumstances permit.

May I wish you a Happy Eastertide, beloved children, and a speedy Resurrection into the consciousness of your own Beloved Christ Self!

Blessings and Love.

* MAHA CHOHAN.

(Excerpts from the Beloved Morya's Report on the Transmission Flame Ceremonies, held in the Resurrection Temple of the Beloved Jesus and Mary, in the Holy Land, Saturday Evening, March 17th, 1956).

Beloved Friends of Love and Light Eternal: It is My joy, pleasure and honor to bring again to you the love and radiation of My own heart and that of the entire Ascended Host, particularly on this day when the radiation, consciousness and outpouring of the Beloved Patrick is flowing so freely through the world of mankind!

Oh, for enough time, beloved friends, to tell you all We would! You see how necessary it is for you to gain your freedom over time, space and supply in this world of form! If you had complete freedom, We could get Our instruction to you quickly and promptly and would not be compelled to crowd it into these short periods of time -- but that will come as you endure, as your sincerity continues and as you persevere with the purification activities both for yourselves and your planet!

Over the Holy Land, where the lives and experiences of the Master Jesus, the Holy Mother Mary and Our Beloved Saint Germain (as Saint Joseph) were enacted (as well as those of many of the apostles and disciples) there is situated the magnificent, circular Resurrection Temple, of which you have read in Our little journal (The Bridge to Freedom). This Temple is a focus of the power of resuscitation for the mankind of Earth as well as for the animal and nature kingdoms and all life expressions who care to magnetize it, apply to it, fly toward it, think about it and absorb it by the power of thought into their very selves.

The nature kingdom has used the power of resuscitation for many, many ages and the Beloved Being, Hope, has used it to stir hope in the hearts of mankind in cooperation with the Beloved Maha Chohan and Amaryllis in the ushering in of Spring, that there is a Power of Resurrection as demonstrated in the sublimation of the hulls of last year's growth.

Here within the Holy Land We have the Resurrection Flame ... It is yours for the asking -- It is Mine for the asking -- It is for the slightest bird, the smallest violet and crocus breaking through the snow covered Earth, as well as for the most earnest-hearted and sincere chela in the deepest recesses of the retreats of the world.

The beautiful Madonna is magnificent tonight in snow-white garments of shimmering, blazing light, banded around the skirt and full sleeves with a mother-o-pearl-like substance and wearing the beautiful light chiffon-like veil that She usually wears over Her golden hair. She has been moving through the various corridors, giving acknowledgment through the touch of the heart, head and hand to the many great Masters, Devas and Angels Who have gathered here for the ceremonies. She also pauses, when time and opportunity permit, to kiss the brow of a kneeling initiate or chela who is hopefully desiring the resurrection of the powers of his being, emotional stability, mental alertness or perhaps health through the decadent flesh. Her ministration (when She turns Her attention toward anyone - even the Masters) has that personal touch as if the one receiving Her attention were the only being in the universe as far as she was concerned. Her motherly embrace is one of Light.

While the Beloved Mary has been receiving, blessing and comforting Her many Guests,

The Beloved Jesus (clad in shimmering white garments similar to those of the Beloved Mother) has been standing within the Resurrection Flame on the Altar, breathing It in, absorbing, expanding and directing Its radiance for some time. The Madonna now joins Him in the center of the Flame and Its radiation blazes forth, filling the seven circular chambers that surround the great center one, with a brilliant opalescent-like substance something like the atmosphere which pervades the etheric realm.

Within each of these concentric chambers (all of which contain groups of chelas and students) ia a great Master Who is supervising the activity and watching the breathing process very carefully, making note of the individual who is intent on his own resurrection, but not projecting and directing the breath for the benefit of the masses. This grouping is separated one from the other at the end of the service; those who are willing to share the benefits received by close proximity to the Flame becoming active chelas of the Temple; the others, while receiving a certain happiness and freedom in their lives, do not have the joy of added service.

The Archangel Gabriel, also wearing pure, unrelieved white, stands in the atmosphere above the huge amphitheatre that has been erected by the Builders of Form to take care of the attending multitudes who have have been drawn here,because almost every individual on the planet desires resurrection from something -- fear, distress, sickness and limitation of one kind or another. The figure of the Archangel is cosmic in size, His radiation covering the entire Asiatic and European continents. It is considered very wise to have this focus in the Near East for many reasons. His radiance pours down over the massed multitudes in the amphitheatre with unsurpassed brilliance.

Your Cherubim, as well as other Guardian Cherubim and Seraphim, are enjoying a brief respite from Their activities in the physical world and are flying in and out and through the Resurrection Flame. They absorb its radiance like a sponge absorbs water and They retain it as long as Their evolution permits. They will fly to the Flame daily and bring back Its radiance to you if you choose to ask Them. Unascended beings cannot enter the heart of the Sacred Chamber where the Flame is blazing, but the Cherubim can and will bring back to you a feeling of bouyancy that will lift you above the cares and depressions of the physical world.

Beloved Hope, Amaryllis and the Beloved Maha Chohan get great joy in the recurrent, rhythmic and systematic release of the spirit of Spring and are directing the Resurrection Flame now into the Northern Hemisphere which will shortly manifest as plants, and flowers. They often remain in the corridors during the service in the Resurrection Temple to give added impetus to Their activity in the kingdom of nature.

Now as We come close to the time of the actual ceremony, the Beloved Jesus and Mary are pouring Their combined radiance through the Resurrection Flame, while the assembled Brotherhood join in sending Their breath out over the whole Earth as ONE. The Beloved Gabriel is rendering the same service; the Maha Chohan and Beloved Hope are cooperating with the Nature Kingdom and I am hoping that each beloved student will feel, not only tonight, but during the entire month the POWER OF THE RESURRECTION FLAME flowing through them.

I implore you. beloved friends, let us not remain month after month in conditions of financial limitation, physical decay, emotional instability and etheric rebellions as if We had not come!..... Avail yourselves now of these powers! Come out into the Glory of the Light! Thank you and God bless you.

MORYA.

We gratefully acknowledge your loving help dear friends, in this cooperation with the Ascended Host of Light for the awakening and illumination of the race from the limitations of the ages.
